The 1946

CLINTONIAN

CLINTON HIGH SCHOOL

CLINTON, IOWA

WE'RE LOYAL TO YOU WE'LL EVER BE TRUE

Dedication

Our loyalty song, the symbol of our respect for Clinton High School, is the token of our support to our school teams and activities. The song is sung at basketball and football games, during pep meetings, and as we pass through the halls after assemblies. The first notes send a tingle down our spines. The lively melody makes us proud that we attend this school. No matter how downcast we feel, the Loyalty Song always restores our pep. Using lines from the Loyalty Song as the theme, this Clintonian yearbook reflects the school's life . . . from the opening day in September to graduation day in June.

Class of 1946

By Elaine Reisler

We think we're pretty big now, but we were the greenest of all freshmen one September morning. We shook like lemon jello when we faced those "ancient" upperclassmen who were armed with lipsticks and other articles of torture, but we bowed, scraped, and liked it, knowing this was all part of becoming a citizen of CHS.

For "little twerps" we put on a good freshman dance and felt mighty proud of it, too. Dean Burridge, class president that year, turned out to be a top-notch athlete, besides. Dale Ventres, Harold Lutz, and Ray Obermiller were the other class officers. Joyce Petersen, attendant for both Homecoming and the Gateway Classic that year, was also elected sophomore Homecoming attendant, junior Gateway Classic attendant, and Prom queen during her high school career. She received the D.A.R. citizenship award in her senior year.

As sophomores, we elected a girl class president, Kathryn Abshire, along with Dale Ventres, Ruth Kinkaid, and Frank Dippo, other class leaders. By then we were beginning to feel at home in Clinton High, and we looked down our noses at the freshmen who were still "green as grass" according to our standards.

There were to be no more freshman initiations, homecoming bon-fires or snake dances, or Junior-Senior Days after that year. We were reminded that there was a war going on. Our high school life went on, very much as it had in peace time, except for war bond drives, first aid classes, and the growing list of CHS service people on the honor roll by the library door.

In our third year, athletes popped into the school spotlight. Therol Petersen, Harold Lutz, Dean Burridge, Richard Price, LeRoy Watts, and Lenny Vogel burned up the basketball floor. Harlen Bartels, Gerald "Buck" Stamp, and Wally Metzger proved expert matmen. Ed Howes, Richard Lake, and Ray Obermiller began to work for a championship swimming team. In another field of activity, Betty Munson and Brenton Baugh received American history awards. George Hensel, Walter McMahon, Elaine Reisler, and Jeanne Hayes organized one of the most successful carnivals ever given in CHS. Harold Lutz reigned as king at both Carnival and prom, while Patricia Farley was Carnival queen and Homecoming attendant that year. Lela Hoffman, who was sophomore Gateway attendant, became Homecoming queen as a senior, and Norma Walsh served as senior attendant in the Homecoming ceremony. The junior class elected four boys and four girls as Prom attendants. They were Richard Tingelt, James Tolson, Dean Burridge, Richard Price, Elaine Reisler, Natalie Nason, Lela Hoffman, and Patricia Farley.

During our last year, George Hensel was student body president. Other cabinet officers were Marian Work, Charles Foster, James Killeen, Dean Burridge, and Walter McMahon, class president. Natalie Nason was class secretary, and Kathryn Abshire, treasurer.

Senior swimmers led the team to the state championship, and they were honored, along with basketball boys, by the town at a banquet in the Modernistic ballroom. Clinton came close to the top in the state basketball tournament, too, and had one of the finest seasons of football in the school's history.

Frances Briggs and Lloyd Strohm went places in oratorical contests, and Billie Jean Houser was our actress deluxe. Robert Claus reached the state finals in the radio-speaking division of the speech league.

Don't ever forget the fun we've had as a class in high school. Remember Glen Jackson and his jalopy, "Sarah," and Frank Dippo and Jack Gardner, the "funny" boys, who left for the armed forces and Robert Porter and Robert Warner, the class crooners who used "to send" the girls in the audience every time they'd utter a note. Remember how Don Brondyke established himself as doorman at the Carnival kissing booth and how Leonard Monr could "make with the footwork" on a dance floor. Don't forget all the assemblies in which Elizabeth Van Epps played the piano and Gloria Justis sang. Remember, too, the nights at the "Milk Bar" when we should have been home spraining our brains for an exam the next day.

Well, Classmates, "them days is gone forever." We're on our way to new and different parts of our lives, and while we're regretfully leaving our high school days behind, we're looking forward with anticipation. Never daunted, the class of '46 shall not falter. "Tonight we cast off. Where shall we anchor?"

Student Government

Student Government is composed of the executive, the legislative and the judicial departments. The executive department is composed of George Hensel, president, Charles Foster, vice president; Marion Work, secretary of state; James Tolson, secretary of treasury; James Killean, attorney general; Robert Swanson, chief justice; Walter McMahon, senior president; William Clancy, junior president; James Leshner, sophomore president; Donald Duvall, freshman president.

Discussions in cabinet meetings were of new bills and projects for senate. This group aids in the administration of the activity program and serves as the committee on every school election.

The cabinet meets whenever called by the president.

The purpose of senate is to substitute real democracy in the form of self-control, acquaint students with duties and responsibilities of individuals in a democracy, and give each student the opportunity to lead the life of a "good citizen."

Six senators are elected from each of the classes, and a bill clerk is appointed by the president.

The legislative department controls and charters school clubs, organizes the activity calendar, arranges P. A. W. programs, has charge of Homecoming festivities, seating in the auditorium, and stewart Classic festivities.

Ten delegates went to a Makoqueta Conference on guidance. The law conference, attended by forty juniors and seniors, was on tolerance. A survey on political tolerance was passed among several students for their parents to fill out for the conference.

The judicial department checks on constitutionality of all measures passed by Senate, interprets the student constitution and supervises the monitor rules.

Attending: Miss Margaret Keyes, Joyce Tolson, Coralie Meissner, Richard Ferguson, Robert Swanson, James Killean, Frances Briggs, Miss Loretta Matlocks, Rachel Jackson, Jeanne Hayes.
 Present: Kenneth Lahm, Robert Loots, Charles Fenlon, John Christian.

Student officers for first semester were Robert Swanson, chief justice; Frances Briggs, associate justice 12; Kenneth Lahm, associate justice 11; Joyce Tolson, associate justice 10; John Christian, associate justice 9; court reporter was Jeanne Hayes and bailiff, Richard Ferguson.

Second semester officials were Robert Swanson, chief justice; Robert Loots, associate justice 9; Rachael Jackson, associate justice 10; Coralie Meissner, associate justice 11; and Charles Fenlon, associate justice 12.

Cases of violation of monitors rules and checking of bills were considered on Wednesday at 3:15.

First semester advisers were Miss Marie Raun, chief adviser; Miss Ruth Ebersole, senior adviser; Miss Edith Birkett, junior adviser; Leo Herkelmann, sophomore adviser; and Miss Mary East, freshman adviser.

Second semester advisers were Mr. Herkelmann, chief adviser; Miss Birkett, senior adviser; Miss Raun, junior adviser; Miss Ebersole, sophomore adviser; and Miss East, freshman adviser.

At the beginning of the second semester, Senate authorized the monitors to function as a service to the school rather than a club. As in the past, this service provides monitors for the halls during school hours and during noon hours. The duties of a monitor consist of keeping the halls clean, checking on students going through halls during school hours, guiding visitors through the building, and going on errands.

Monitors are chosen by their willingness, cooperation, and attitude toward the school.

Officers were Richard Price, president; Therot Petersen, vice president; and Dean Burrigge, secretary. The adviser was Miss Margaret Keyes, home economics teacher.

Honor Society

Membership in National Honor Society is based on character, service, leadership, and scholarship. No student may be chosen unless he has a 2.5 average.

This society is organized to stimulate the desire to render service, to create enthusiasm, to encourage development of character and to promote worthy leadership.

Two induction ceremonies were held in the school auditorium, and the programs were written by the members. New students taken in the society in November were Kathryn Abshire, Brenton Baugh, Charles Fenlon, Betty Munson, Elaine Reisler, Adam Bartz, Anne Sexton, Dolores Vorbeck, and Phyllis Hoffman. Two members, transferred to the society from other schools were Paul Neff and Lloyd Strohm.

Officers of the club for first semester were Charles Foster, president, Joyce Petersen, vice president, Jeanne Hayes, secretary. Second semester officers were Lloyd Strohm, president, Kathryn Abshire, vice president, and Charles Fenlon, secretary.

Two new projects of the society this year were the issuing of book bags to honor students and the reading of honor roll in the school auditorium.

Science Club

Science Club under the direction of Thomas Robbins, physics instructor, was organized to promote interest in science throughout CHS.

Individual projects of the students were blowing glass, building crystal radio sets, and experimenting with x-ray and cathode rays and other electronic apparatus.

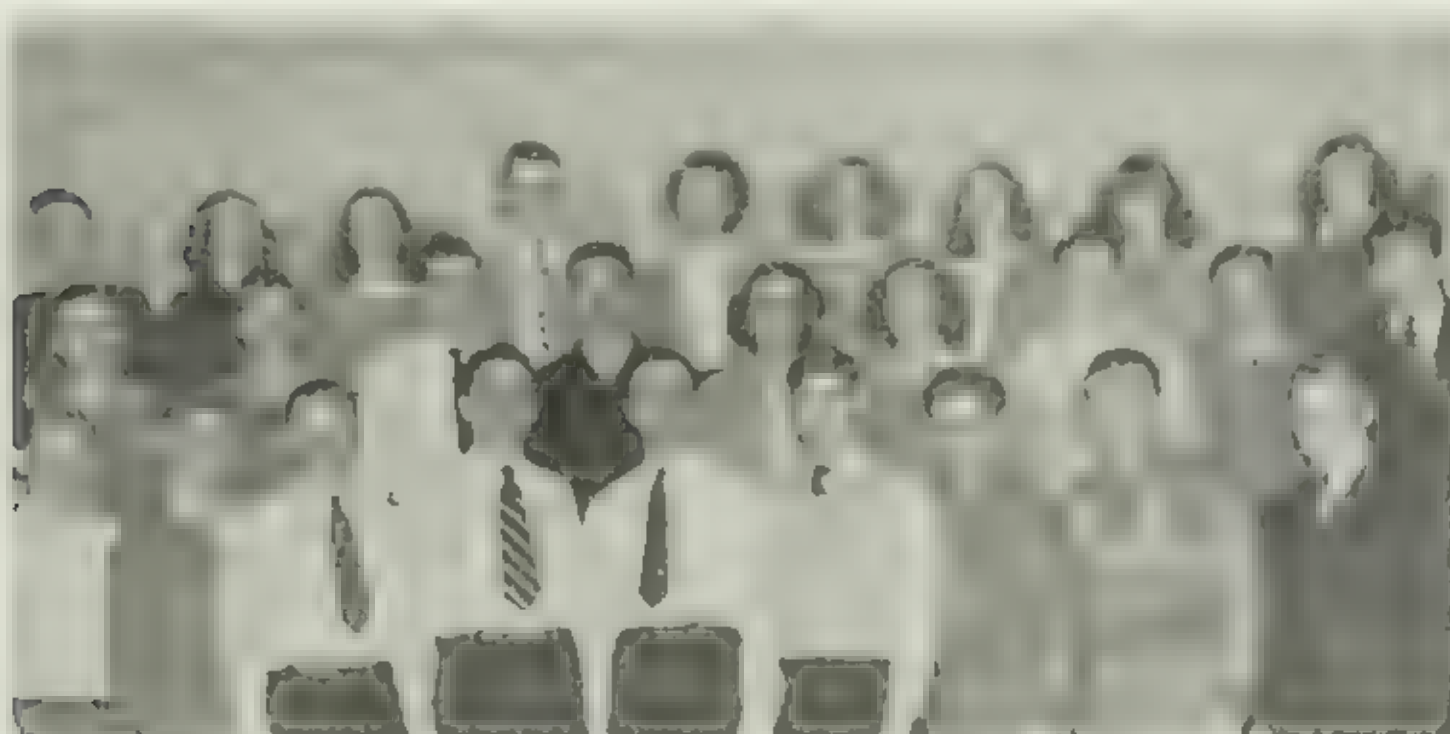

Tours have been made through Clinton Company, du Pont's, and KRO-S. A visit was conducted through Jane Lamb Hospital to observe x-ray equipment.

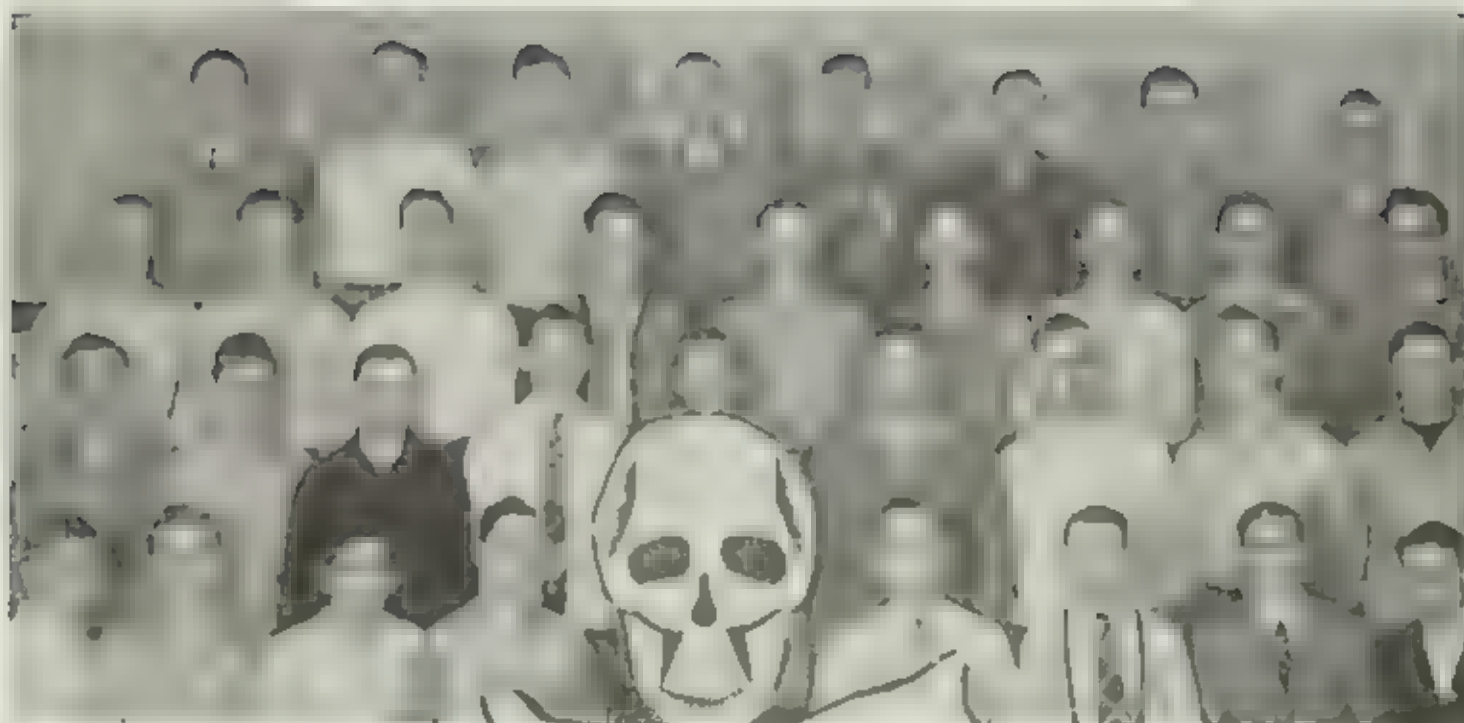

The club sponsored a Westinghouse Science Talent Search Test in which several students took part. Some students rated high enough in the test to have the papers sent in to be judged.

Officers of the club were Richard Tingleff, president, Ann Kiel, vice president, and Janet Schmitz, secretary-treasurer.

Meetings were held in the science lecture room on the second Monday and fourth Tuesday of each month. The time varied with one at three o'clock and the other at seven.

Bachelor's Club

Officers for Bachelors' Club were Edward Howes, president, Harold Lutz, vice president, Dale Ventres, secretary-treasurer, Jack Gardner, Richard Price, and LeRoy Watts composed the executive board.

Miss Isabelle Streib, home economics teacher, has sponsored this club since it was organized in 1938. This club, while limited to seniors only, is the largest boys organization in CHS, composed of eighty-two members.

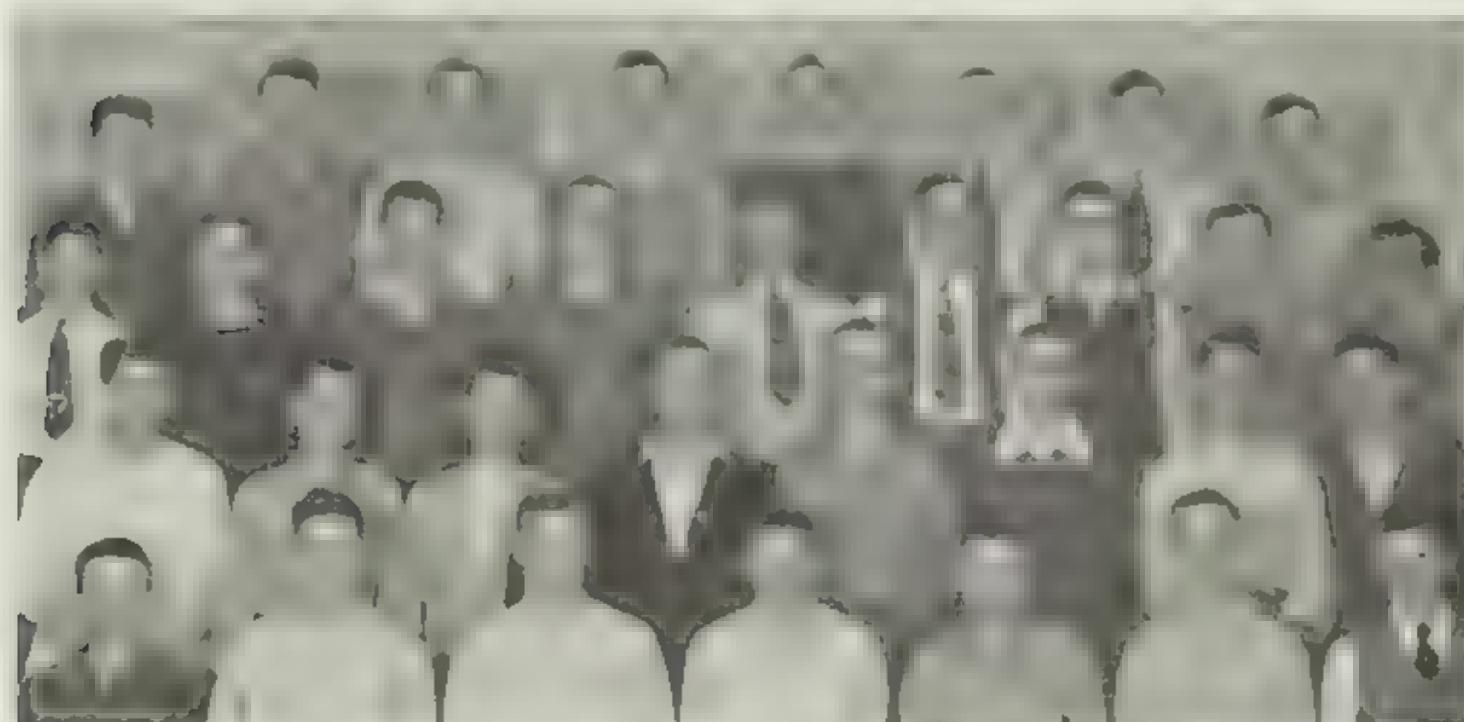

The main purpose of this club is to develop and build personalities and to further self-improvement. Discussions of becoming more worthy members of home and society, etiquette, poise, health and well-balanced diets by special speakers and Miss Streib were main topics of the meetings. Boys learned nutritious value of food and practiced manners for all times.

This year boys ushered at basketball games, assisted the Sustaining Wings Canteen, worked on beautifying the campus, and assisted with the noon hour recreation. All of the boys took part in these chief activities.

The club ordered their emblem, the skull and crossbones, for wearing on key chains or other purposes. The boys chose a sterling silver background with a gold plated emblem.

The annual dinner dance was held March 26 in the school cafeteria. Committees appointed by the president were Richard Ferguson, music; Dale Ventres, refreshments; Richard Price, programs, and Harold Lutz, decorations. The main speaker of the evening was C. S. Petersen, Sheriff of Clinton County. "Juvenile Delinquency" was the topic of the speaker and the main theme of the banquet. A dance in the school gymnasium followed the dinner.

Publications

The Clintonian, bi-weekly paper of CHS, is written and published by the students. Officers of the paper were Newton Baird, editor; Jean Specht, associate editor; Diane LaBatt, feature page editor; Mary Scott, treasurer; Herbert Hanger, advertising manager; Richard Tingleff, sports page. Miss Eunice Blackburn, journalism and English teacher, sponsored this group. The business staff included Joan Best, Jean Hammerand, Nora Nielsen, and Cleo Ploen.

Reporters for the Clintonian were Frances Briggs, Mariellen Campbell, Gail Dean, Martin Fatchett, Lucia Fry, Janet Henderson, Billie Jean Houser, Gloria Justis, Betty Munson, Natalie Nason, Joyce Petersen, Elaine Reisler, Elizabeth Van Epps, and Joan Wiedman.

Sixteen issues were published with color at Thanksgiving and Christmas. Linoleum blocks, made by art students, were used in many of the issues and cuts were used in several issues. Journalism department receives no money from the activity fund.

Ann Kiel, annual editor, worked on senior section, with students on other sections, and had charge of the general planning of the whole book. Patricia Farley worked on senior section, and Dorothy Bigwood worked on faculty. Sport section was made up by Stuart Lang and Richard Tingleff. Mary Scott and Judith Ramsey sized, mounted, and named pictures of the freshman, sophomore and junior classes. Phyllis Swartz and Betty Hansen worked on the activity section. Snapshots were taken by Robert Jorgensen. Advertising was handled by Herbert Hanger. Robert Jowett dropped this activity.

Eight students attended the two-day journalism conference at Ames. Herbert Hanger and Diane LaBatt received honorable mention in contests. Four attended the East Moline Double-I Press conference. Newton Baird and Diane LaBatt entered contests in which Diane received honorable mention for her feature story.

Student Club

Student Club, the largest organization of girls, is a branch of the national organization of Girl Reserves. The main purpose of the club is to help girls experience and understand the following major areas of life: religious belief, democracy, personal and family relationships, responsibility for the contribution each individual must make to civilization, and creative activities.

Programs consist of topics from these areas selected by vote of the club and additional talent programs. Meetings are presented in the form of skits, speakers, panel discussions, questonnaires and debate.

Meetings were in the auditorium, second and fourth Tuesdays of each month during home room period. Girls worked with the city Y.W.C.A. in carrying out service projects for the community and for the World Y.W.C.A. Special Christmas and Easter worship services were presented by a joint group of Student Club and Hi-Y.

Three conferences were open this year: Camp Brewster, Omaha; Illowa Conference, Muscatine; and the Iowa City district conference. Several from Clinton attended each.

Officers were Joyce Petersen, president; Ednabelle Drury, vice president; Joyce Tolson, secretary; Dorothy Floyd, treasurer; and Miss Nellie Jones, adviser.

Group leaders were Alicemarie Nielsen and Gloria Justis, dramatics; Elizabeth Van Epps and Joan Gool, music; Jeanne Harvey, rings; Cheral Petersen and Jane Hurlburt, social; Jane Butzbach, finance; Patricia Farley and Betty Munson, program; Ardelle Kuchel and Doris Hinrichsen, publicity; Jeanne Hayes and Mary Ellen Jones, service; Frances Briggs, reporter. Class representatives were Joan Anderson, senior; Nancy Samson, junior; Rachel Jackson, sophomore; Alice Strohm, freshman.

Row 1—Joanne Bennett, Gloria Hink, Cleo Ploen, Rachel Jackson, Gloria Sanderson, Evelyn Van Horn

Girls' Athletic Association

The Girls' Athletic Association advisory board met regularly with Mrs. Barbara Kevil, sponsor, to plan the club's activities. This year the girls planned a Sleuth Hunt, the Spinster Spree, and a Mother-Daughter tea. They also promoted tournaments in basketball, volleyball, badminton, swimming, and hockey.

The main purpose of the club is to promote friendliness and good sportsmanship among high school girls and to further the interests of girls' athletics. Bowling, baseball, hockey, archery, volleyball, pingpong, basketball, and swimming are all activities of the group.

The main event of the year was the Spinster Spree which marked the end of Girl-Date Boy Week, March 11-15. Girls were required to take over all the social graces performed by the boys. Also, the girls paid all the expenses. The boys wore traditional vegetable corsages. Decorations were in the spirit of St. Patrick's Day, and the music was furnished by Gus Kelly's Orchestra.

Girls' Athletic Association meets every Tuesday from 3:00 until 4:00 o'clock and every third Monday in the auditorium during the activities period.

Letter awards are given to those who earn seven hundred points, and the state pin to those who earn one thousand points. One girl is elected as best athlete, and another girl is elected as best sportswoman.

The '45-46 board was composed of Lela Hoffman, president, Evelyn Van Horn, vice-president, Joanne Bennett, secretary, Phyllis Hoffman, treasurer. Sport captains were Norma Sims, basketball; Gloriann Hink, bowling; Cheral Petersen, hockey; Rachel Jackson, ping pong; Beverly Wagoner, swimming, and Gloria Sanderson, volleyball. Joan Gool is the club reporter.

Pep Club and Cheer Leaders

Drilling for football and basketball games is the main activity of Pep Club, and at the same time it develops poise and good carriage within the group. The drills this year were worked out by committee.

The cheerleaders are a branch of Pep Club. They lead the yells at all the games and at the pep meetings. Each girl takes her turn at leading the pep meetings. Leaders are Joan Wiedman, Marjorie Holgaard, and Patricia Farley, three years; Gloria Justis and Kathleen Benton, two years; Beverly Norskov and Beverly Wagoner, one year, Nona Kunde and Joan Peters are extras who led yells for sophomore games only.

The club met on Tuesday mornings, from 7:45 to 8:45, and they called themselves "The Dawn Patrol." During football and basketball seasons practices were also held at three o'clock on Thursdays.

On March 30 Pep Club joined Pollywogs in sponsoring their annual spring dance, the "Polly-Pep" dance. The decorations were of pastel colors with the traditional arch in the middle of the floor. Music was furnished by P. D. Alleman and his orchestra.

Pep Club has thirty-nine members: fourteen seniors, fourteen juniors and eleven sophomores. Requirements for membership are a "C" average and passing a series of tests, including tests in posture and in marching.

Officers for the year were Kathryn Abshire, president, Patricia Farley, vice president, Roberta Amey, secretary.

Latin Club

Latin Club meets every third Thursday of the month to promote student interest in classic literature and add to the cultural background of Latin students.

Membership is open to any one taking Latin or to anyone who has had a year of Latin.

The annual Latin Club banquet, April 16, was in the form of a dinner of the gods. Fourteen major gods and goddesses were represented by Robert Jowett, Allen Justis, Peter Maurek, Richard Kelly, Richard Tingleff, Walter McMahon, Betty Munson, Kathleen Farley, Janet Keefe, Rachel Jackson, Lois Sley, Marjorie Holgaard, David Munson, and James Lesher. The speaker, Mrs. George Morden, reviewed the book The Fates Are Laughing by Croiser. According to the Roman custom, parts of the program are presented between each course of the dinner. The program included a vocal solo by Rachel Jackson, "Dance of the Roman Flower Girls" by Arden LaBatt, Patricia Cavanaugh, Ann Ferris, and Martha Hempstead. The girls were accompanied by John Christian. Freshmen boys who served as slaves were Keith McRoberts, John Christian, Norman Sievertsen, Gene Bierman, Richard Brecker, Rodney Schroeder, and David Bowersox.

This year Latin Club joined the Junior Classical League, a national club sponsored by the American Classical League for teachers. A sterling silver key is awarded to students who have taken Latin at least two years and maintained a "B" average. Those who have just joined the club for the first year are pledges. Pledges are allowed to attend the meetings but are not allowed to vote.

Officers are Richard Kelly and Robert Jowett, (consules) president, Lois Sley, (scriba) secretary, Rachel Jackson, (quaestor) treasurer, Miss Edith Bach is the adviser.

Little Theater

Little Theater is organized to enable students to develop a keener appreciation of good drama and good acting, to afford opportunities for developing natural abilities, and to encourage a spirit of cooperation and a sense of responsibility through activity as cast, crew, or on the production committees.

The members presented many assembly skits; two three-act plays, "Nine Girls" and "Mr. P.m. Passes By," three one-act plays, "The Late Mrs. Bunker," "It Was a Lovely Meeting," and "Antic Spring." Contests in humorous and dramatic readings, original oratory, one-act plays, and radio-speaking were in the year's activities.

Points toward membership are earned by participating in skits, plays, or by presenting papers during meetings of the club, taking part in contests and in programs as well as by acting as a member of production committees. Three points make one a pledge member, and twelve, an active member. The club meets every second Monday of the month in room 203 at 7:30.

Officers were Bernhardt Oyaas president, Don J. Wilson, vice president; Anne Saxton, secretary-treasurer.

"Nine Girls" by Wilfrid Pettitt, a thrill-packed mystery, was given November 16. The scene was laid in a sorority house in the Sierra Nevadas, California. The plot concerns a group of nine sorority sisters who do not seem as friendly as they should be. One of them is suspected of the murder of another. The all-girl cast was composed of Jane Butzbach as Jane, Janet Rohwer as Mary, and Claire Dodge as Eve. Sharon, better known as "Glamorpuss" was portrayed by Billie Jean Houser. Elaine Reisler played the "intellectual" Freda. Shirley Hultgren as Alice, and Anna Marie Marshall as the athletic "Shotput" were others. Two pledges, Shirley and Betty, were played by Nancy Oyaas and Arden LaBatt.

On the stage crew were Bruce Cleworth, Donald Hill, David Frondle, and Gerald Moldt. On properties committee were Marjorie Gilbert, Ruth Domsalla, Caroline Rich, and Robert Claus. Doris Hinrichsen, Shirley Hultgren, and Joyce Petersen were on publicity.

Shirley Hultgren, Jane Butzbach, and Claire Dodge, Arden LaBatt, Nancy Oyaas, Billie Houser, Jane Butzbach, Anna Marie Marshall, and Elaine Reisler, Anna Marie Marshall, and Billie Houser.

A. A. Milne's "Mr. Pim Passes By" was the production given in May. Mr. Pim comes into the lives of a quiet country English family and, without intending to do so, creates a tempest in a teapot. Later, he straightens it all out, still without intending to do so.

Mr. Pim was played by Robert Angel. Bruce Cleworth played Uncle George; Lucia Fry, Aunt Olivia; Joan Todd, Dinah; and Gerald Moldt, Bran; and Hildegard Pahl, the maid.

Three one-act plays were given March 30. "The Late Mrs. Bunker" concerns an elderly woman and her will. Those taking part were Evelyn Bierman as Mrs. Bunker; Roberta Amey, her daughter Sarah; Faye Ferguson, Dora Hartsook Alan; Brenton Baugh, Trid; and the hired girl, Shirley Hultgren.

"It Was a Lovely Meeting" included Joan Hilliard as Mrs. Mersch; Lucia Fry, Mrs. Van Dyne; Ruth Nickelsen, Mrs. Clemens; Joan Basta, Mrs. Crane; Rosemary Robinson, Mrs. Smithers; June Bumann, Millie Renshaw; Joan Rutledge, Mrs. Perkins; Ilean Ryner, Mrs. Reed; and Shirley Seevers, Mrs. Jones. The comedy concerns a meeting of club women who become involved with plans for a flower show.

"Antic Spring" is about a group of teen-agers who start enthusiastically on a picnic, which is not the event expected. Those in the cast were Norma Walsh as Blossom; Stuart Lang, Robert; Robert Warner, Sam; Lela Hoffman, Gwendolyn; Norman Walsh, Elbert; and Anne Saxton, Ginger.

Delores Ekland, Marilyn Boyd, Joan Bruggenwirth, Janet Keefe, Myra Petersen, Diane Graham, Shirley Henry, and Amy McKenrick were the production staff for the one-act plays, while stage crew included Bruce Cleworth, David Frondle, Gerald Moldt, and Donald Hill.

In the one-act play contest, "It Was a Lovely Meeting" won the rating of "excellent" at the annual play festival, which took place, Saturday, March 30, in the dramatic arts building of the University of Iowa. Dr. Lee R. Novelle, University of Indiana, was the judge of class A and B plays.

"Antic Spring" Robert Warner, Lela Hoffman, Norman Walsh, Norma Walsh, Stuart Lang, and Anne Saxton. "The Late Mrs. Bunker" Brenton Baugh, Roberta Amey, Shirley Hultgren, and Evelyn Bierman. "It Was a Lovely Meeting" Joan Basta, Joan Hilliard, Ruth Nickelsen, Lucia Fry, Ilean Ryner, Rosemary Robinson, June Bumann, Joan Rutledge, and Shirley Seevers. "The Late Mrs. Bunker" Faye Ferguson, Roberta Amey, Evelyn Bierman.

Frances Briggs won first place in the American Legion oratory contest, second place was given to Lloyd Strohm, and third to Richard Tingleff. Others participating in oration division were Donald Richardson, James Tolson, Gerald Moldt, and Bernhardt Oyaas.

In the dramatic declamatory contest, Mary Louise Leshner won first. Second place winner was Lucia Fry, and Joyce Petersen received third. Other contestants were Jeannette Schmidt, Carol Wenholz, Marian Durkee, Delores Dawes, and Arden LaBatt.

Billie Jean Houser won first place in the humorous contest, Mary Lou Iverson, second, and Hildegard Pahl, third.

Robert Claus was entered in radio-speaking in the Iowa Speech Association contest. He won first place from all judges in all preliminary contests and rated second place in the state finals. In the Iowa State University contest he was given top rating in the radio-speaking event and received a certificate of superiority.

Orchestra

The orchestra completed another year of playing and enjoying fine music under the direction of Miss Kathryn Hetzel.

The orchestra elected officers as follows: Dale Ventres, president; Leroy Watts, vice president; Joyce Tolson, secretary treasurer. The librarian and stage manager also have certain responsibilities.

Letter students this year were Joyce Petersen, Leroy Watts, Charles Rider, Jack Lorenz, Ruth Dale, Elmer Stevens, Charles Fenlon, Donna Oliver, Joan Heath and Minnie Taylor.

On March 17 the orchestra joined band for a combined concert. The program of the orchestra was "Iphigenia in Aulis" by Guck, "Chop Sticks" by H. R. Evans, "Concertino" by Mozart, "Beethoven Sonatas" by Beethoven, "Russian Sailor Dance" by Gleve.

Orchestra furnished the music for Baccalaureate, Spring Festival, two school plays, eighth grade graduation and assemblies in the auditorium.

The string sextet was composed of Rosemary Robinson, violin, Donna Oliver, violin, Charles Rider, cello, Joan Heath, violin, Ethel Hoover, bass and John Christian, piano.

Meetings for orchestra were during the sixth period on Tuesday and Wednesday. String section met on Monday, Thursday, and Friday.

The climax of the work this year was the Mississippi Valley Music Festival at Dubuque, May 16-17.

Varsity Football

The River Kings completed a successful season, having participated in a nine-game schedule with one loss. Six were conference games; Rock Island, St. Ambrose, and East Moline are not in the Mississippi Valley loop. The Kings finished second in conference standings with East Waterloo as the champion. East Waterloo had a hundred per cent average but played only four games.

The Kings started the ball rolling at Rock Island, tipping a tough team, 14-0. This was the first time in twenty-one consecutive games that the Islanders had been defeated on their home field.

The next game was on Dad's Day. The boys put on a good show for their dads, routing the Iowa City eleven, 13-7, with Dean BurrIDGE and Gerald Stamp doing the honors. Richard Price made a 52-yard run in the closing minutes of the contest but was downed on the 28-yard line.

Clinton took the third win of the season in Cedar Rapids, scoring a 25-0 win over Franklin High. This game was filled with highlights as Stamp first went for a 60-yard run to score and several minutes later BurrIDGE threw a 35-yard pass which was completed by Lutz for another score.

The fourth victory was the defeat of St. Ambrose, 27-0. The Knights held the Kings during the first period but were overwhelmed by the pounding of the Kings' line. Touchdowns were scored by Stamp, Therol Petersen, and BurrIDGE.

In the game with East Moline, the Red and Black walked off with a 40-0 victory. In the last quarter Stamp went for a 60-yard run to the 22-yard line to score moments later on a pass from BurrIDGE.

For Homecoming at CHS, Clinton played Roosevelt, Cedar Rapids, defeating the Roughriders, 26-7. BurrIDGE made the first and last scores of the game and also the extra point by plunging over the line after the touchdown scored by Petersen on a long pass from BurrIDGE. Stamp carried the ball over for the other score.

The Davenport game was a less joyous event as Davenport won, 6-0, scoring in the second quarter. Clinton threatened in the third quarter but fumbled on the two-foot line.

Clinton hit its stride again in the eighth game, netting a 20-0 win over Wilson, Cedar Rapids. "Lenny" Vogel scored the first two touchdowns for the Kings, Price made the third, and Lutz completed two conversions.

The season ended with a 34-6 win over the Dubuque Rams. Highlighting this game was a 55-yard run by BurrIDGE behind some excellent downfield blocking, to score.

Harold Lutz and Richard Price were elected honorary co-captains at the end of the season.

BurrIDGE tied for top scoring honors in the Mississippi Valley loop with Hollingsworth, East Waterloo. Both had 37 points. Stamp, Vogel, and Petersen also ranked near the top with 18 points each.

BurrIDGE and Lutz were named on the first All-State team by the Des Moines Register selection. Price was selected on the fourth team.

The Iowa Daily Press Association selections differed slightly. The I.D.P.A. selections named BurrIDGE as first team all-state back, while Lutz, Petersen, and Price were given honorable mention.

Sophomore

The sophomores won games with Sterling, St. Ambrose, East Moline, Dubuque, and took two games from both Davenport and Savanna. DeWitt gave the Little Kings their only defeat.

There were several heavy boys in the line, and the blocking, tackling, and interference were fine, and the back-field worked hard for speed.

Under the direction of Coaches Howard Judd and Edward Mickey, the Little Kings racked up 155 points while they let their opponents gather a total of only 59 points. Thirty-one boys received awards.

Freshman

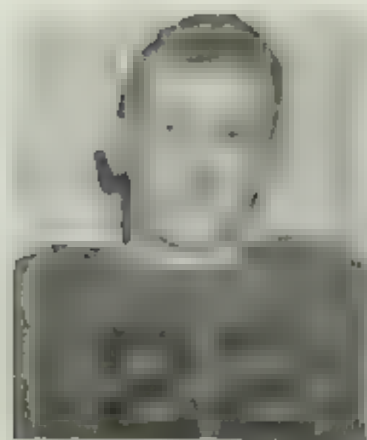

The freshman football squad concluded the grid season with two victories and six defeats. Two games were played with Lyons, and one with Moline, and the game with St. Ambrose. The freshman victories were the two contests with Lyons.

The line fairly light this season, was composed of Lauren Mumm, Robert McDermott and L. D. Fergeson, ends; Duane Lueders and Kenneth Ohrt, tackles; Louis Sexton and William Dunn, guards, and Lauren Kramer, center. The backfield worked hard for speed and was composed of Paul Sharar, quarterback, Donald Duvall, left half, Hans Andresen, fullback, and Keith McRoberts, right half.

Backing up Coach Howard Judd's regulars were Robert Loots, George Chalgren, John Paxton, Basil Finch, Jack Carstensen, Gaylord Rolston, Homer Johnson, George Clark, Robert Benson, Frederick Garrett, Wayne Wait, and Thomas Nissen.

Therol Petersen, senior, played the first-team right end position. "Pete" was a good pass receiver, and he scored in the St. Ambrose and Dubuque games after receiving a pass from Burrigde.

Harold Lutz, senior, played left end. "Red" was a fine defensive and offensive player. He was good in the line and in the backfield. He did the blocking and added many points, place-kicking the extra points.

Paul Neff, senior, was a Charleston, Illinois, transfer. Paul demonstrated his speed and agility as substitute end.

Leroy Watts, senior, played substitute left end. He started and played most of the Wilson game. He caught a pass good for forty yards.

James Higgins, junior, played end and did some fine blocking which helped the backs to get off some long runs.

Edward Howes, senior, played left tackle. Ed did a fine job of cross-blocking with Donald Parker to open holes for Burrridge to dash down-field. He also stood out on defense

Donald Brondyke, senior end and right tackle, had a lot of speed and made several good tackles in the Rock Island game to save long runs.

Clarence Klare, senior, played reserve tackle. He played a bang-up game when he was called on to start the Dubuque game in the absence of Howes.

Robert Fitch, junior, played reserve tackle. He should make a good first-string tackle next fall.

James Killean, senior, played right guard. He could start fast, was a good blocker on offense, and a good defensive player. Few yards were gained against him.

Donald Parker, junior, played left guard and made up for his short stature by his excellent blocking and tackling.

Harlen Bartels, senior, played alternate guard. Harlen was fast and a good defensive player. He surely loved to play football.

Charles Mallory, senior, was a Comanche transfer. "Chuck" got right into the game and did some fine substitute guarding.

Eugene Gluba, senior, formerly of Muscatine, played reserve guard. "Gene" was a hard-hitter and could force a path for the backs.

Theodore Stoik, junior, did the major share of centering. Ted was a good passer and backed up the line with some deadly tackling on defense.

James Holstein, senior, played reserve center. Jim did well with his passing and clicked on defensive play as well.

Harold Ward, junior and substitute center, made few mistakes and did a neat job backing up the line. He played well at Wilson when Stoik was out of the line-up.

Dean Burridge, senior, played the left half position. Dean was very fast, could cut, pass, receive a pass, and was really a coach's dream player. Dean tied for the M.V.C. scoring record with Hollingsworth of East Waterloo. Dean was picked for the all-state first team by the Des Moines Register and by the I.D.P.A.

Gerald Stamp, senior, played right half-back. "Buck" did all the punting for the team and was an excellent passer. He could cut sharply and got away for a 60-yard run in both the Franklin and East Moline games.

Richard Price, senior, held the quarterback position. Dick did some fine blocking and tackling and was selected by the Des Moines Register for the all-state fourth team. I.D.P.A. selections gave him an honorable mention.

Leonard Vogel, senior, was fullback. "Lenny" could pass well and did some fine kicking. He ranked near the top in M.V.C. scoring. He made two long runs in the Wilson game for touchdowns and scored against Dubuque.

Adam Bartz, junior, played reserve back. Adam's weight aided him in effective drives. He played his best at East Moline.

Herbert Boegel, junior and a reserve back, was a good ball handler. He should make a good player next fall.

Edward Thomas, junior, played the back position. Ed backed up the line on defense and was a good tackler.

Arthur Sheller, junior, substituted in the backfield, kicked off and handled conversions. He scored against East Moline. Kenneth Snyder, senior, was reserve left halfback. Ken could cut sharply and was fast. He did especially well in the Wilson game.

Homecoming

Hobo Day was held Thursday, October 18, and the halls of CHS were inhabited by a grand array of tramps and bums. In the afternoon assembly there was a contest for the best hobo boy and girl. Violetta Wese, freshman, and Paul Hagenson, junior, were chosen as the most representative. They were judged by Miss Mary Albro, Mrs. Barbara Kevill and Edward Rashke. Edward Mickey acted as master of ceremonies. A small pep band composed of Leroy Watts, Kenneth Earhart, Dale Ventres, Phil Haun, Emer Stevens, and Robert Angell played during the assembly. Following the assembly everyone went to homeroom sections in front of the building to prepare their float for the parade which followed immediately. The winning floats came from Miss Eleanor Davidson's senior homeroom, first; Miss Beatrice Hansen's seniors, second; Miss Merced Abraham's juniors, third.

The faculty committee for Hobo Day was Edward Mickey, Misses Gladys Arnold, Edith Bach, and Nellie Jones.

A large crowd turned out to see the River Kings win their sixth consecutive game. Following the game a dance was held in the gym.

Varsity Basketball

The cage season opened at East Moline where CHS scored a 44-34 win. A rough game with Dubuque ended in a 65-23 loss for the Rams, Dubuque playing without three of its regulars that night.

Clinton sustained its first and only defeat at the hands of the Sterling five in an overtime game.

Roosevelt, Cedar Rapids, was given a 45-33 drubbing in a contest in which the Kings held the lead throughout. Dean BurrIDGE led the scoring with twelve points.

The score against Muscatine was 34-35 with BurrIDGE claiming scoring honors with thirteen points.

Davenport, the traditional rival, bowed to the Red and Black, 51-35. BurrIDGE led the scoring again with twenty-two points.

McKinley, Cedar Rapids, was the next to fall, to the score of 58-31. Therol Petersen took top honors with twenty-two points.

The final score of the Wilson game was 50-26. Dean Pieper, junior, was high with twelve points. Sharpshooting was the outstanding feature of the game.

Although hindered by a small floor in their ninth contest, the Kings tipped Savanna, 45-29. Petersen was high point man with twelve.

Iowa City was defeated, 64-32, with BurrIDGE staging a twenty-three point scoring spree. In the game twenty-five fouls were called. The second game with the East Moline Hilltoppers was a 68-41 victory. BurrIDGE and Pieper scored twenty and nineteen points respectively for top honors.

Davenport threatened Clinton's undefeated conference standing in the return contest. Though handicapped by a strange floor, the Kings came out on top again, 23-20.

In the return game with Savanna, the Red and Black scored a 54-27 victory.

Clinton held a hard-driving Iowa City team in the second game, winning, 37-31. Petersen and Pieper tied for scoring honors with fourteen each.

A 58-30 victory was registered against the Fulton five, and Petersen was high point man.

The River Kings drew the strings on the conference championship as they won another M.V.C. tilt with the Dubuque Rams, 55-18. BurrIDGE took scoring honors with sixteen points.

The final conference contest was with Franklin, Cedar Rapids, a 60-27 victory. Price led the scoring with fourteen points.

The Kings edged out the Sterling Warriors, 43-35, to avenge the single defeat in the regular season's play.

Fulton was the last team defeated on the home floor. The winners of the Illinois League Championship were downed, 47-28.

The regular season's play came to a close as the Kings were victorious over Muscatine, 34-31. Petersen was high point man for Clinton.

In the district tournament play, Clinton was first matched with a strong Burlington team, which was defeated, 58-23. Columbus Junction was the next victim, 36-17, and the third game was a 47-31 win over Chariton.

The sub-state championship fell to Clinton with a 41-36 victory over Franklin.

Ames, defending champion, bowed to Clinton, 43-37, the first night of the state finals, but the second night was a sad one, for Danbury scored a 25-24 win.

Sophomore

The Little Kings completed a highly successful season, winning a total of sixteen while losing four. Twin victories were scored over Muscatine, Savanna, Fulton, East Moline, and Sterling. The sophomore quintet split with Davenport and Dubuque while single game conquests were won over Wilson, McKinley, Roosevelt, and Franklin. The only double defeat came at the hands of Iowa City's "Little Hawks." Total points amassed were 730 or 36.5 points per game while opponents had 606 or 30.3 points per game.

The freshman basketball team played nine interscholastic games, racking up three in the plus column of the ledger and putting seven in the minus column. Two games were played with Lyons, St. Mary, Savanna, Fulton, and one contest with St. Francis.

The freshman victories were the two contests with Lyons and one of the two played with St. Mary's.

The usual starting line-up was Donald Duvall and L. D. Fergesen, forwards, Paul Sharar, center, Lauren Kramer and Hans Andresen, guards.

Substituting in the line-up were John Carstensen, Lewis Sexton, Arthur Frondle, John Paxton, Kenneth Felderman, Ronald Adair, Henry Clark, Robert Lueders, Wayne Wait, Richard Coe, and Willis Witt.

Lettermen

Soon after the 65-23 slaughter of the Dubuque Rams the Clinton Herald coined a very appropriate nickname, "The Fire-Wagon Five," for the Clinton cagers. Everyone seemed to like it, and the names of Therol (Pete) Petersen, Dean Burrige, Harold (Red) Lutz, Richard (Dick) Price, and Dean Pieper became synonymous with "Fire-Wagon Five."

Richard Price, senior, won his second letter. Dick has completed four years of service for Clinton High, scoring 169 points this year for second place among Mississippi guards and receiving honorable mention by the Iowa Daily Press Association. He ably handled the throttle for gauging the River Kings' terrific fast break.

Harold Lutz, senior, won his second letter. Red's tight guarding plus his ability to handle situations brought him the respect of all teams engaged this season. His "pickling" of Davenport's mighty Weldon was one of the high spots of the season. Harold received honorable mention by the Iowa Daily Press Association.

Dean Burrige, senior, was picked as all-state performer by sports writers, Associated Press, Iowa Daily Press Association, and tournament writers. The "mighty atom" was easily the number one forward in the state this year. His all-around ability and great competitive heart earned him a place on Clinton's all-time team. Dean led the Mississippi Valley in scoring with 13.9 per game and won his third letter.

Therol Petersen, senior, won his second letter. Holding down the pivot position, Pete scored 277 points, earning a selection on the broadcasters' tournament team during the state meet and honorable mention by the Iowa Daily Press Association. His workhorse performance, his scoring from the pivot post, and his rebounding ability gave Clinton the balance of power in several games.

Dean Pieper, was the only junior on the "Fire-Wagon Five." Dean's speed, sharpshooter's eye, and uncanny ability to team up with Burrige made Clinton's forward wall the classiest in the state. At Moline, Dean made history when he hit six straight baskets, missed one, and then connected for three more. Dean received honorable mention by the Iowa Daily Press Association and won his first letter.

Leroy Watts, senior, won his second letter. Leroy's play at the state tournament, as trouble shooter, earned him a place on the all-tournament squad. Tall and dependable, Leroy saved the situation many times with his alertness and agility. In the Ames game he came through with eight points when they were needed. Leroy was elected to guard position on the Iowa Daily Press Association's third all-state team.

Paul Neff, senior and Charleston, Illinois, transfer, proved an able cog in the Mississippi Valley championship march toward the state tournament. Rebounding and speed were Paul's strong points.

Herbert Boegel, junior, won his first letter. Herb sat in the shadow of four seniors. Playing an average season, he might easily have rated a starting berth.

Leonard Vogel, senior, won his second letter. Lenny's reliable play and capable guarding made him a valuable member of the squad.

Robert Becker, junior, won his first letter. Though he is short in stature, Bob's excellent shooting often helped "up" the score when the second squad took over.

Ted Stoik, junior, who had the ability to get rebounds and a hard-driving power, became one of the important standbys when the reserves were playing. He won his first letter.

Swimming

Coach Judd's prediction came true as the Clinton High swimming team won the state title. Clinton scored 60 points, Roosevelt, 39. Richard Lake and Albert Machael both won firsts. Lake in the 100 yard breast stroke and Machael in the 100 yard back stroke. Two relay teams won championships. The 180 yard medley made up of Pat Cormick, Edward Howes, and Kenneth Lahm, and the 160 yard free style composed of Paul Brieske, Gene Hood, David Bonebrake, and Jack Lorenz.

The River Kings scored wins in all their dual meets. The first was with North, Des Moines, and the score was 36½ to 27½. Clinton twice defeated East Rockford with scores of 46 to 32 and 50 to 24. Another double win was over West Rockford, 50 to 25 and 45 to 30. Also defeated were Roosevelt, Des Moines, 37 to 27, Oak Park, 45 to 21, and Proviso, 49 to 17.

Lake set a new pool record in the 100 yard breast stroke cutting down the time from 1:05.4 to 1:04.6. Machael set a new record in the 40 yard free style, swimming it in 18.8 when the old time was 18.9. Lake swam the 100 yard breast stroke in 1:03.2, just .4 off the national record. The 300 yard medley relay team, composed of Machael, Lake, and Lahm, fell just .1 short of the national record. Clinton's time was 3:08.6 against the record 3:08.5. Lake and Machael were given all-American honors. Seniors graduating are Lake, Ray Obermiller, Howes, James Holstein, and Lorenz.

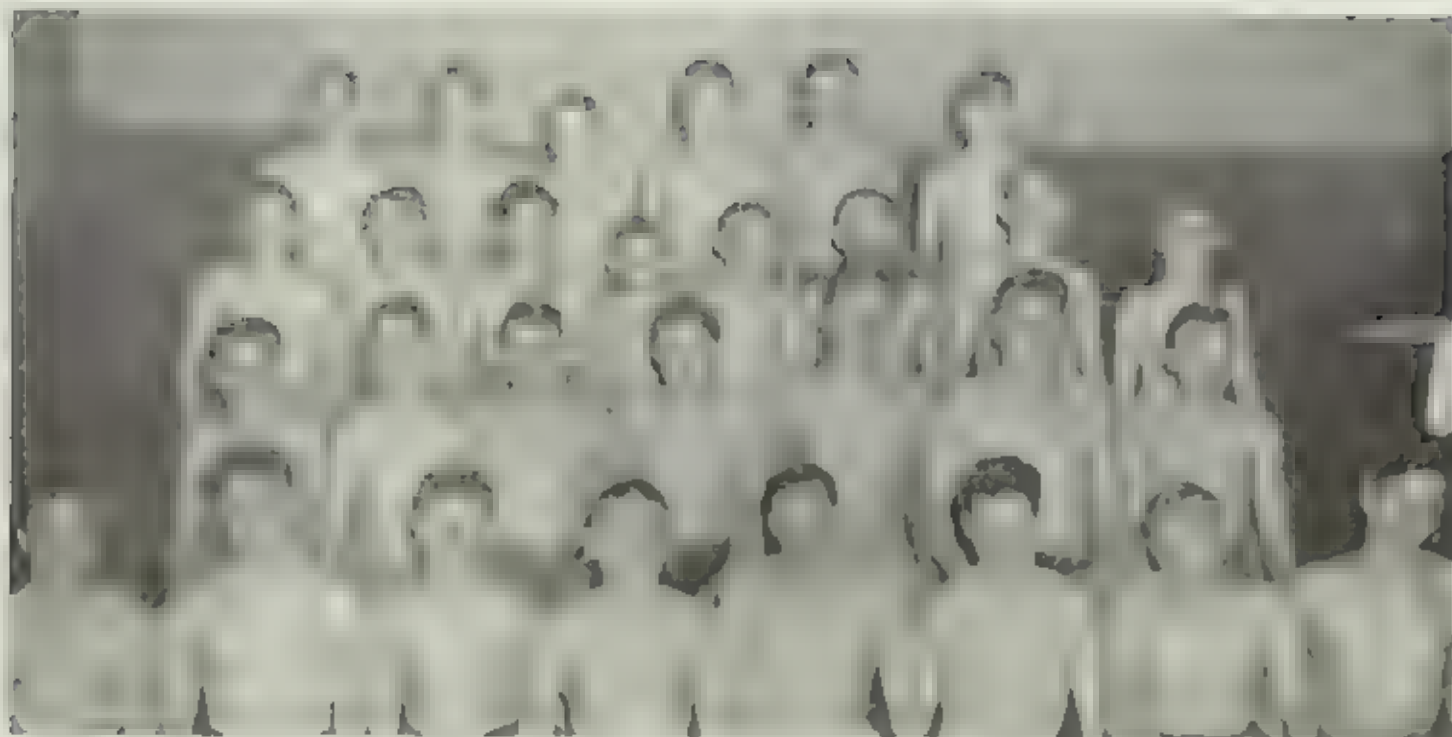

Major letter winners are David Bonebrake, Pau. Brieske, Pat Cormick, Edward Howes, Richard Lake, Albert Machael, Kenneth Lahm, Ray Doyme, James Holstein, Jack Lorenz, Gene Hood, Allen Justis, Robert Niebuhr, Ray Obermiller, and Arthur Sheller. Lake, Howes, and Obermiller were elected captains.

Pollywogs, organized to create an interest in swimming for girls and to help further improve form in swimming and diving, meet every Wednesday at three o'clock in the pool.

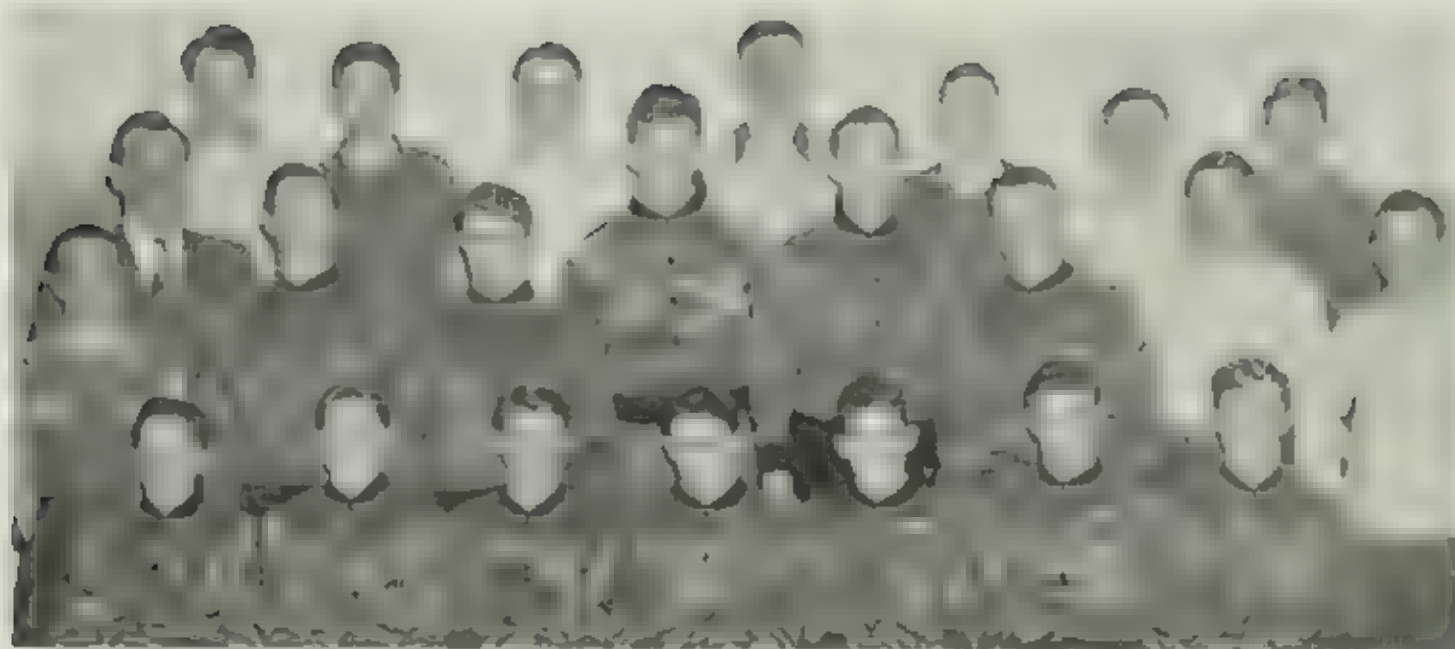

Junior and senior lifesaving classes were conducted by Ann Kiel, Evelyn Van Horn, and Alicemarie Nelsen during first semester. The girls are to have passed either the junior or senior lifesaving test and a series of tests on form and endurance. An amendment to the constitution concerning the grading system was passed. New members were Barbara Sutton, Colleen Hoop, Janet Keefe, Joan Peters, Shirley Iten, Beverly Tallman, Marjorie Price, and Marilyn Happs.

A pep assembly was held at the Junior Carnival. Pep Club and Pollywogs merged funds and gave a "Polly Pep" formal dance.

Officers for the year were Evelyn Van Horn, president; Jane Hurlburt, vice president; Betty Ingwersen, secretary-treasurer.

Wrestling

CHS wrestlers, coached by Edward Mickey, chalked up six losses and two wins in dual competition. The first meet was a quadrangular, here, December 15. Clinton placed fourth. They lost to Rock Island, December 20. January brought three losses, one to Maquoketa and two to Rock Island, while Clinton placed fourth in a M.V.C. meet at Mt. Vernon. In February, Clinton lost twice to Davenport but had two wins over Muscatine. The first was a win in every weight division. The next event was the district meet at Davenport. Clinton placed third with 23 points. Wallace Metzger, 118 pound class; Harlen Bartels, 145 pound class; and Gerald Stamp, 155, all won championship honors. William Lucke took a second in the 112 pound weight. The state meet was at Clarion, February 22-23, and four winners of the district went to this. None of them placed in the finals.

The best records of the season were held by Bartels and Stamp, who were undefeated in dual competition. At the end of the season the team elected Bartels as captain. The next best records were held by Metzger and Gerald Kallenbach.

Major letter winners were Harlen Bartels, Gerald Stamp, Lawrence Roggendorf, Wallace Metzger, Edward Zirbes, Gerald Kallenbach, Herbert Lund, and Richard Hickenbottom. Roggendorf, first string heavyweight, moved to Fulton at mid season.

For the first time in CHS wrestling, there was an organized second team. Those receiving minor awards were John Holmes, Jack Klopp, William Lucke, and Stuart Lang. Freshman letters went to LeRoy Crenpe, Jack Hindley, and Richard Molsberry.

Gerald Stamp, Harlen Bartels, William Lucke, Wallace Metzger.

Track

The track team, under Max Lynn, head coach, showed form and winning ability in every department. CHS tracksters started off the season by winning the M.V.C. indoor meet at Iowa City, nosing out Davenport by half a point. The score for Clinton was 45½, Davenport, 45. Harold Lutz won in the pole vault and placed second in the high and low hurdles and the shot put. Another first for the Red and Black was taken by the mile relay team.

Clinton placed third with 33½ points in the state indoor meet at Iowa City. First place honors went to Paul Neff in the 440 yard run and to Gerald Stamp and Lutz, who tied for first, with two others, in the pole vault. Dean Pieper got second in the mile run and John Kucera tied for third in the high jump.

Davenport sank under Red and Black prowess, April 12, by the score of 96½-56½. Lutz and Stamp tied for first in the pole vault with Lutz also taking top honors in both high and low hurdles. Pieper won the mile run, Neff, 440 yard run, Harlen Bartels, broad jump, Leonard Vogel, discus, and Leroy Watts, high jump. Also placing first was the 880 yard relay team composed of Kenneth Snyder, Robert Rousch, Charles Foster, and Richard Price and the mile relay team.

Rock Island was beaten in a dual meet here, 111½ to 78½. The Kings took eight first places. The top winners were Harold Ward, high hurdles, Pieper, mile run, Neff, 440 yard run, and the double wins of Lutz in pole vault and shot put, and Watts in high and broad jumps. Also placing first was the mile relay team composed of Bartels, Jack Deters, Lloyd Strohm, and Neff.

In the Davenport Relays, Clinton placed second with 60 points. First place winners were Stamp, pole vault, Watts, high jump, and the 880 yard and mile relay teams. Clinton also tied for first with three other schools in the 120 yard high hurdles.

Clinton played host to Dubuque, April 23, and defeated the Rams, 103½ to 73½. Winning in the high and low hurdles, shot put, and tying for first in pole vault was Lutz. Stamp tied also in the pole vault and took first in football throw. Among the other first place winners were Pieper, mile run, Foster, 880, Bartels, broad jump, Kucera and Foster, tie in high jump, and the mile relay team composed of Snyder, Pieper, Deters, and Neff.

In the Drake Relays, Stamp and Lutz tied with one other for a new record in the pole vault, at 11'-6½". The old record of 11'-6⅛" was made by Lutz last year. Also scoring in the finals was Stamp, second in the football throw with 189 ft., and Lutz who placed fifth in the high hurdles. The two mile relay team (Neff, Baugh, Foster, and Pieper) placed third in the finals with a running time of 8.25. The mile relay team, composed of Snyder, Pieper, Strohm, and Neff, was first in the finals with a time of 3:31.9, which bettered the time made by the Iowa college section won by Iowa State Teachers in 3:33.0.
